A message
from the Principal.

We did it! Olympia Heights Elementary is now an "A" school! It is with great excitement that we welcome you back to the 2022-2023 school year! As we reflect on last school year, we are so proud of the work done by our students, parents, and teachers. As your principal, I will continue to cultivate a school culture where all educational programs are conducive to student learning and development. Remember, Teamwork Makes the Dream Work!

Mrs. Y. Sanchez Counselor's Corner

Welcome to another wonderful year! As the school counselor, I am here to help you with any concerns about your child's academic and socio-emotional development to ensure that your child has a successful year. You can contact me at the school or via email at ysanchez1@dadeschools.net We will continue working on the Values Matter initiative. Our value for the coming month will be RESPECT.
